POULTRY PREMIUMS

PREMIUMS FOR THE 1923 PECOS VALLEY POULTRY ASSOCIATION MEETING

Held at Carlsbad, New Mexico, Dec. 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 1923.

The Pecos Valley Poultry Association has just closed one of the most successful poultry exhibits ever held in New Mexico. There was on display approximately $25,000 worth of exceptionally high class poultry, numbering more than three hundred birds. In addition, a fine display of turkeys, Belgian Hares and other pet stock.

It will be noted from the list of winnings given below that this show held at Carlsbad attracted poultry raisers from every part of the state and also from Oklahoma.

The Pecos valley poultry association is an institution that has done a great deal of good for the poultry industry in New Mexico.

The next annual show will be held at Roswell, New Mexico and will without doubt be the greatest attraction of the kind ever held in the Southwest.

The following is a list of the winners:

Rebekah's Open Meeting.

The open meeting of Carlsbad Rebekah Lodge, held at the Odd Fellows' Hall last Friday night, deserves more than passing notice. About 75 invited guests were present and the program has been pronounced one of the finest ever rendered before an audience in Carlsbad.

Vocal solos were sung by Messrs. Butler, Pratt and Moore, each gentleman kindly responding to hearty encores.

Miss Anna McMahon, a finished elocutionist and teacher of one of the grades of our schools gave a most amusing monologue, "On the Street Car" and also responded to an encore.

The little Armstrong brothers, Stewart and John, delighted the audience with songs: "Always Take A Girl Named Daisy", and "My Little Pick-animy." This number was a surprise to the audience and that it was a success all present bear witness. Mrs. Armstrong accompanied her sons on the piano.

A violin solo by Miss Bessie Johnson with Miss Florence Owen at the piano, was one of the most enjoyable numbers of the evening.

Mrs. Virginia Kauffman sang "Mavourntan" with her usual ease and grace, responding to an encore, with a lullaby.

The male quartet, consisting of Messrs. Pratt, Butler, Moore and George Roberts, made its first public appearance, giving a beautiful boating song and upon recall, singing "The Mosquito" and again "A Story of a Tack" all were enthusiastically received.

After the program, refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, coffee and cake were served and an informal evening was spent in music and conversation.

The meetings which have been in progress at the local Baptist church, for the past three weeks, were brought to a close Sunday night. During the meeting eight persons united with the church, four of whom were baptized Sunday night, and one other has been approved for baptism. The evangelist, Rev. G. H. Snyler, who assisted the pastor, Rev. Mr. Bell, left for his home in Rocky, Oklahoma, last Monday morning.

Reduced Prices on Lumber

We are pleased to advise our customers that July First we made a reduction of $2.50 the thousand on practically all dimensions and grades of yellow pine lumber. We believe this is the lowest price that can be expected on lumber of the grade we carry, and urge intending builders or all those with any prospective work in view, to buy now while prices are low. When the grain crops begin to move lumber is sure to advance. Fifty cents on the thousand off on shingles.
